

Special Education: Google Read & Write

The First Nations Education Steering Committee and First Nations Schools Association are offering a number of professional development workshops designed specifically for First Nation schools' staff in British Columbia. For all other SEP related professional development, please check the events page <http://www.fnsa.ca/upcoming-events> .

Boost reading and writing confidence across all types of content and devices, in class, at work, and at home! Intuitive and easy-to-use, Read & Write for Google Chrome™ provides personalized support to make documents, web pages and common file types in Google Drive (including: Google Docs, PDF & ePub) more accessible. It's designed to help your students engage with digital content in a way that suits their abilities and learning styles. Read & Write offers a range of powerful support tools to help students gain confidence with reading, writing, studying and research.

Google Read & Write Follow-Up

This session is designed for you to drop in and ask any questions you may have about Google Read & Write as you begin to get it up and going in your school.

Registration

Google Read & Write Follow-Up

September 17, 2020, 2:00- 4:00 p.m.

Register in advance for this meeting

REGISTER

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about how to join the Zoom meeting.

Contact

Barb O'Neill, Executive Assistant, SEP and Instructional Services
sep@fnesc.ca Toll-free 1-877-422-3672

Eligibility

Principals, Teachers, LATs and EAs (or designated school lead) in First Nation schools in BC are eligible to attend. Advance registration is required.

Schedule

2:00 p. m. – 4:00 p.m.

Meeting Materials

A meeting kit and agenda will be emailed to participants in advance of the event.

Presenter

Roberta Thomson,
Assistive Technology Coach, FNESC

Technical Details

If you have any technical questions about how to join, please contact us for assistance.

First Nations Education Steering Committee
First Nations Schools Association